To those who see with wonder in their hearts
And know what glories there can be,
To those who see miraculous sights
And envision all of the wonders hidden from the eye,
To those who hear multitudinous sounds and Listen to the symphonies that silence brings...

"The end of man is knowledge, but there is one thing he can't know. He can't know whether knowledge will save him or kill him. He will be killed, all right, but he can't know whether he is killed because of the knowledge which he has got or because of the knowledge which he hasn't got and if he had it, would save him. There's the cold in your stomach, but you open the envelope, you have to open the envelope, for the end of man is to know."

Jocelyn Leigh Braddock

Dear Jocelyn,
We hope you never lose
your sense of wonder.
You get your fill to eat
but always keep that hunger.
Time is a wheel in constant motion always rolling us along.
Tell us who wants to look back on their years and wonder where those years have gone
When given the chance;
We hope you dance!

Our love goes with you always,
Mom and Dad

Deborah Bishov

Dear Deborah,
Wishing you the best of luck!

All our love,

Who has expressed the richness of life through his smile?
Who has walked alone through "Nhat Hanh"?
Who has met Charles Darwin in space?
Who has transformed goats' milk into beer?
Who has waded poetry in verse, Latin melody, and harmony?
Who has held the corner of the door?
Who has walked with joy and possibilities, even yet?

Andrew, Andrew Thomas Gregory

Senior Week

It is the week that every Swarthmore student dreams of--SENIOR WEEK! It is a time to relax and enjoy the ambiance of Swarthmore without having to worry about exams or papers. Take a stroll through the Crum, lounge on the Beach, or wander through Philly with some friends. It is a time to both reminisce about Spec Weekend so long ago and about all the crazy stunts you pulled during your younger years and also a time to form new memories before the Class of 2004 parts. The Senior Class Officers, Matt, Kristina, Njideka, and Carolyn, have designed a fun-filled week sure to be exciting and enjoyable. From trips to Atlantic City, Great Adventure, a Blue Claws game to a Philly Ghost Tour and a Moonlight Cruise, there is something for everyone. Congratulations Class of 2004! Enjoy your time together--you've earned it!

The Halcyon 2004

The Halcyon 2004, the official yearbook of Swarthmore College, was printed in the State College, Pennsylvania plant of Jostens Printing & Publishing Company. Philip Klein served as the publisher's representative, and David Hartnett and Micah Martin as the in-plant coordinators. Carl Wolf Studios of Sharon Hill, Pennsylvania was responsible for the senior portraits, graduation photos, dormitory photos, and athletic photos.

The Halcyon 2004 is 9 by 12 inches, printed on 80-lb. double gloss enamel paper and contains 16 color pages, an 8 page color tip-in, and 120 black and white pages. All pages were produced using Adobe Pagemaker 6.5 and YearTeach 2004. Panoramic photographs were created using Canon Utilities PhotoStitch v3.1 and Adobe Photoshop 7.0.

The Halcyon would like to extend a special thanks to Philip Klein for his assistance as the Jostens representative, Mike Durinzi, representative from Carl Wolf Studios, Jenny Yim, the Student Activities Advisor at Swarthmore College, Geoff Semenuk in the Alumni Relations Office, Sports Information Director Mark Duzenski, and Jeff Traczynski and the Student Budget Committee.
